

The Governing Body have agreed that All Saints CE Primary School should promote the following British values

Pupils will be encouraged to develop the values of self-knowledge, self esteem and self confidence.

Pupils should know what is right and wrong

Pupils should respect the civil and criminal law of England.

Pupils should be encouraged to accept responsibility for their behaviour, show initiative, and to understand how they can contribute positively to the lives of those living and working in the locality of the school and to society more widely.

Pupils should acquire a broad knowledge of and respect for the public institutions and services in England.

Pupils should show tolerance, respect and harmony for different cultural traditions by gaining an appreciation of their own culture and respect for other cultures.

Pupils should have a respect for democracy and be encouraged to participate in the democratic process, including respect for the basis on which the law is made and applied in England.

Agreed by the governing body May 2015.
